

The “Headbanging” Quartet

Carlos Passeggi

This piece is for four drummers.

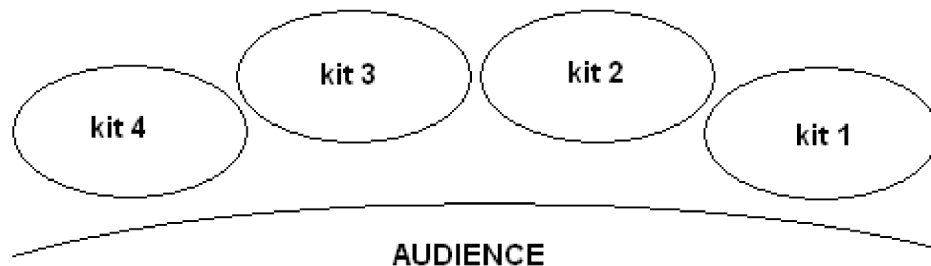

It was written having in mind the big sound produced by the drums kits, playing some kind of “heavy metal” lines, plus the choreographic motion of the “headbanging”.

Headbanging is a type of dance which involves violently shaking the head in time with the music.

There are some parts in the score where it is suggested to the four drummers to do the headbanging. They must coordinate how to do it in each case, always trying to make the best visual impact.

Be careful with your neck, it is a good idea to finish the performance with your head over your shoulders....
